The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 8 to Saturday November 12. 1726.

Madrid, November 4, N. S.

ON the 28th of last Month Don Francisco Casado, Son to the Marquess de Monteleon, was married to the late Marquess de Campo Florido's Daughter, with whom he is to have a Portion of 30000 Pistoles. On the 29th a Decree of his Catholick Majesty was published, ordering that each Piece of Eight, in the Weight of which there only wants eight Quarts, which is the sixteenth Part of a Piece, shall pass for full and weighty, but what is wanting above the said eight Quarts shall be made good; and that the Term of carrying the old Money to the Mint in order to be recoined, shall be prorogued till further Orders from his Catholick Majesty. The Infant of Portugal, who has lately been at Alba to pay his Devotions to the Relicks of Santa Teresa, is returned to the Escurial, and is lodged in a Country House of that Convent half a League from thence. Some Days ago Count Vander Nat arrived here from Vienna by the Way of Genoa and Barcelona, as Minister from the Duke of Holstein. His Catholick Majesty has lately sold to the Marquess de St. Jago for Two Millions of Escudos, a considerable Part of the Crown Revenue called Terzias Reales; and it is said that the Pasture Grounds belonging to the Crown are also to be sold, in order to raise Sums of Money for the present Emergencies, and for furnishing Subsidies to the Emperour and his new Allies; and the monied Men here are frequently called to the Escurial, and Proposals made to them for finding Money, which at present is extreamly scarce here; the King's Treasury being so much exhausted, that even his Household has not been paid this 10 Months past. The late Duke of Ormond with many others of his Party are at the Escurial, where they meet with favourable Receptions. The Duke of Wharton, who gave out for certain that he would go last Saturday to Valencia, and from thence to Rome, is still here and seems to have put off his Departure.

The two Men of War which sailed in the Beginning of September from St. Andero, bound for the West-Indies, have been driven back to the said Port by Storm very much damaged: They are still there, and it is taken for granted they will not be able to sail again this Year. Letters from Cadiz of the 29th past relate, that the two Advice-Boats designed for the West-Indies are still in that Port.

Dublin, Oct. 31. Yesterday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. And this Day at Noon the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction upon this Occasion. And at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Westminster, Nov. 10. This Day the Parliament met, and was further prorogued to the 8th of next Month.

The Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellour of Great Britain having directed that an Advertisement of the following Order should be published in the London Gazette, the same is accordingly herein inserted, as follows.

Ordo Curiæ Cancell.

Veneris 28 Die Octobris, 1726.

WHEREAS there were several Claims both of Principal Moneys and Interest upon the Offices of Fleetwood Dormer, and John Borrett, Esqrs; deceased, late two of the Masters of this Court, and of Richard Godfrey, and Edward Conway, Esqrs; two of the present Masters of this Court, specially stated and not determined by the Masters who were directed to state the Claims and Demands of the Suitors of this Court upon the said Offices; and it having been enacted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act for Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery, that the said Court should with all convenient Speed, in the most compendious and summary Way, determine such Claims, and cause to be done therein what should be equitable and just; it was by an Order of this Court, dated ved the 3d Day of Auguſt laſt, ordered and declared, that this Court would on Thurſday the 8th Day of September laſt proceed to determine ſuch Claims accordingly; and that all Parties concerned might have Notice thereof, it was further ordered, That the ſaid Order ſhould be ſet up in all the Offices belonging to this Court concerned in that Order: And whereas notwithſtanding the ſaid Order, and the Publication thereof as aforeſaid, ſeveral of the ſaid Claims, for Want of Application to this Court by the Parties concerned therein, yet remain undetermined, by reaſon whereof the Accompts of the ſaid ſeveral Offices which are by the ſaid Act to be made up before the firſt Day of Hillary Term next cannot be perfected: Therefore, for the better complying with the Direction of the ſaid Act, it is hereby ordered and declared, That this Court will upon Wedneſday the Seventh Day of December next peremptorily, and from thence de die in diem, proceed to determine ſuch of the ſaid Claims as remain yet undetermined, which is the laſt Day that will be appointed for that Purpoſe. And that all Perſons concerned may have due Notice thereof, and may in due Time make proper Application to this Court concerning the ſame, It is further ordered, That Copies of this Order be forthwith put up in all Offices concerned therein, and that an Advertiſement thereof be forthwith publiſhed in the London Gazette.

[Price Two Pence]

G. Intr' Edw. Goldesbrough, Dep. Reg.

Whereas many Perſons do ſtill unwarily venture to purchaſe and wear prohibited Eaſt-India Silks and Callicoes, notwithſtanding the Act of Parliament of the 11th and 12th of King William, which beſides Forfeiture of the Goods, ſubjects them to a Penalty of Two Hundred Pounds; and whereas the Manufacturers have by proper Officers, in purſuance of the ſaid Act, made many Hundred Seizures, without ſuing for the Penalty, which has made the Defaulters think it not recoverable; In order therefore to undeceive ſuch People, and prevent their running themſelves into ſuch Inconveniency, they think fit to publiſh the Preamble to the Act of the 10th of King George, Intitled, An Act to prevent Multiplicity of Proſecutions upon an Act made in the 10th and 11th of King William, for the more effectual employing of the Poor, &c. viz. And whereas ſeveral Perſons have ſince the ſaid 29th of September 1701, inadvertently made up and uſed the ſaid prohibited Goods in Furniture and Houſhold Stuff (believing the Act extended to Apparel only) and thereby have ſubjected themſelves to the Penalties of the ſaid Act, which Words, believing the Act extended to Apparel only, plainly ſhew what the Senſe of the Legiſlature was, i. e. that the Penalty was not only incurred by the Wearers, but even by the Uſers in Furniture: The Manufacturers being therefore deſirous of giving as little cauſe of Uneaſineſs to their fellow Subjects as poſſible, and yet reſolved to go vigorouſly on in proſecuting on the ſaid Act, do think fit to give this publick Notice; and they farther reſolve from Time to Time in the publick Prints, to publiſh the Names and Places of Abode of ſuch Perſons on whom ſhall be made any future Seizures, that the World may ſee who are the Contemners of the Laws of their Country, and the Incouragers of ſuch clandeſtine Trade.
